ASN History

We Began...

in 1983, with an awareness that support services were not available to help area families cope with Alzheimer's Disease. From the initial educational support program at Harrington Memorial Hospital, the ongoing ASN Support Group was established in 1984. In 1985, funds were donated by the Harold Piehl family and Aid Association for Lutherans which led to the formation of our charitable non-profit organization, Alzheimer's Support Network of South Central Massachusetts, Inc.
